

Philpressionism

It's More Art than Science

you are invited!

Philpressionism is the 2022 Youth Pod retreat.

What is a Youth Pod retreat you ask? It's a time for all thirteen philanthropic youth groups, known as Youth Pods, to come together to learn about philanthropy, share ideas, and be inspired.

Philpressionism will take place at the Community Learning Center (CLC) in Kendallville, Indiana. The retreat will be hosted by PULSE, the Noble County Youth Pod.

Philpressionism is a weird word. Let me tell you a little bit more. Hi. I'm Phil Philanthropy. I serve as the Youth Pod retreat mascot. I'm the guy on the front of this invitation and I've been involved in youth philanthropy for over 22 years.

This year I'm thinking about how much people study the data of philanthropic activity then try to make the perfect scientific equation which is important but when it comes to sharing your time, talent, and treasure to show a love for mankind, it surely seems that philanthropy is more of an art. What is art? It's an expression or application of human creative skill and imagination, typically in a visual form. That's Philpressionism!

Learn more by attending the retreat on March 4 and 5.

To register for the retreat, show your excitement and the information above with your parents. Ask them to sign the enclosed Registration and Permission Request forms. Return your completed forms to your Navigator by January 27 and get ready for a great weekend of friends, learning, art, and a little science.

Philanthropically,
